CORNELLE AND HIS TIMES," by M. Gotor. This intelligenteritical essay, which was originally ablished nearly forty years ago, is now reproduced with such changes as have been suggested by the progress of time. It presents a rapid sketch of the tate of poetry in France before the age of Corneille, nd a discriminating survey of his dramatic productions. With no pretentions to originality or brilliancy, it is a highly respectable specimen of literary discussion, and will be read with interest by the lovers of French literaure. (12 mo. pp. 303. Harper & Brothers)

TO "A BUNCH OF PANSIES," is the title of a nest volume of Poems and pieces in Prose by Crn-THIA BULLOCK. It will interest the philanthropist by the fact that the authoress has been blind from her birth, and is an orphan. Indebted to the kindness of friends for the means of publishing her first volume, she presents a claim on the generous and humane for its hosde reception. On its own account also it is entitled to kindly notice, as showing considerable mental culture, the purest feelings, and a great fluency of versification. (12mo. pp. 143. J. A. Gray.)

"The PEN and PENCH." is the title of a new weekly periodical, just commenced at Cinciunati, edited by W. WALLACE WARDEN. It is devoted to Litersture, Science, Art and News. Among the contributors announced, we find the names of N. P. Willis, Richard B. Kimball, Gen. Morris, Rufus W. Griswold, and other New York littera curs. The plan of the journal embraces selections from Foreign Magazines, as well as original matter.

TO "A FORTNIGHT IN IRELAND." by Sir FRANCIS B. HFAD. (12mo pp. 216, G. P. Putnam & Co.) With more than even his usual flashiness, Sir Francis here gives us his experience during a fortnight's run in Ireland. In spite of its superfluous vivacity, the parrative embodies a good deal of matter of fact description and inference, and on the whole, gives a very creditable view of the population of the Emerald Isle.

1 " " ZENDER'S FRENCH ALMANAC" for 1853 is issued with its usual variety of information, including the statistics of the past year, a directory of the French population of the largest cities of the United States, and numerous valuable items of miscellaneous metter. It is sold at the principal bookstores.

THE AMERICAN ALMANAC" for 1853, issned in Boston by Little, Brown, & Co , in addition to the usual variety of statistical matter, contains a valuable account of the "Recent Discoveries in Astronomy, relating to the Comets." By Professor Lovering, of Harvard University.

17 "MENOIRS OF A COUNTRY DOLL." by MARY CURTIS. A companion to the "Memeirs of a London Doll," written for children by a little girl of eleven. A very pretty beginning for the precocious sutheress. (Boston. Monroe & Co.)

LIVE "LIVING TO CHRIST," is the title of a biography of Julia, relating her religious experience and happy death. The family name is not given. (12mo., pp. 203. R. Carter & Brothers.)

THE COURSE OF FAITH," by JOHN ANGELL JAMES. This valuable work on practical religion, evangelical in sentiment and carnest in spirit, is reprinted by R. Carter & Brothers.

"THE LUCK OF BARRY LYNDON," a romance of the last century, by W. M. THACKERAY, is reprinted from Frazer's Magazine in Appleton's Popular Library.

At HELLENS'S SALOON OF WONDERS there will be afternoon and evening performances in Necromancy, Legerdemain, Second Sight, and kindred witchcrafts.

At the Cincus, the usual attractions are offered to the levers of wondrful horsemanship, &c. At Wood's MINSTREES there will be a new budget of Ethiopian melodies, dances and drolleries. AT BANVARD'S PANCRAMA OF THE HOLY LAND ONC can see faithfull delineated many of the most remarkable features of that sacred country. AT RISLEY'S PANORAMA OF THE THAMES WIll be exhibited the delightful and interesting scenery of the central portion of England. AT BRYAN'S GALLERY is a rare collection of Works of Art, which will well repay a careful scrutiny.

MADAME ALBONI-Broadway Theater.-The Opera of the Daughter of the Regiment is growing, if anything, in public favor. Another well stocked theater of devous listeners and warm admirers at the Broadway last night. The amiable cantatrice was replete with genuine good humor which made all the human nature in the house kin, and ad led to this she was never in better voice, always bating any overlapping of the soprano-region, and not getting "above the lines." She is a full, cordial, tender tone I contralto; and though necessarily wanting that brilliant timbre which only belongs to the soprano-absolute-a certain micallic ringing tone which compensates for the want of the low and lovely deep of the feminine bass organ -yet such is the elegant gush of tone which she pours forth that the house is carried away in a current of feeling. Madame Alboni surprises her admirers by her excellent acting. It is naif, unconstrained, and up to the part. In the spinet singing scene we would suggest that the regiment-refrain be taken without intermediate recitation immediately on the young lady's dashing down the music. The Parisian tradition is in favor of that reading of the part.

Signor Rovere, ever admirable, is more and more auprecisted by the sudience. They may take it for granted that a better buffo, as to style and acting-voice epart-cannot be found in Europe.

The Orchestra played more accurately than ever The music has various inspirations. The arguments against Donizetti's composition are ignored by the public, who sympathize with its elegant vocalization; for in regard to a knowledge of the voice, all singers agree that he treats it, as to method, in superlative style, never fatiguing it, and yet giving it enough to do; while his fluency of melody is undeniable. His great fault was that he wrote too fast, a fault Nature allows but few, very few, to indulge in.

On Monday comes the rival drum of Madame Sontag at Niblo's; so the public will be regaled with a row-de dow duct next week. May both be heard!

TAX RECEIVERS .- Mr. Rose has introduced a bill in the Assemby, providing for the election of Tax Receivers (Commissioners !) of this City.

CITY RAILROADS .- In the State Senate yesterday, Mr. Tabor, of Albany, introduced a bill to prevent injustice in the construction of railways in the City of New-York. The bill prohibits the con of any railroad without special permission from the Legislature.

The First Unitarian Church, Rev. Mr. Bellows Pastor, have purchased ground on Fourthay, and Twenty-fourth-st, for their new Church edifice, and will commence building early in the spring.

The Church of the Messiah (Unitarian) under the pastoral care of Rev. Mr. Osgood, (successor of Rev. Dr. Dewey.) is in a most flourishing condition, and we learn that there has been such a demand for pews that there are none now unoccupied, and even the Pastor's has been granted for the accommodation of another.

The Second Unitarian Church of Brooklyn, a newly organized free Church, lost a valuable Sunday School Library, Hymn Books, &c., valued at four hundred dollars, by the burning of the Female Academy in Brooklyn the other day. They have removed to the Brooklyn Institute, Washington at. They had no insurance.

Considerable time was occupied on affairs relating to the new Bible House.

Numerous grants were made, including grants to the American Missionary Society of Arabic Bibles and Testaments for their missions in Africa ; to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal South, for their Indian Mission Schools; and appropriations of $300 to the Ahmednugger, and $400 to the Yulu Missions.

to The widening and filling up of Chathamat., so as to make a level street of it from French's Hotel to the foot of the Bowery and East Broadway, is probably the most important improvement that has ever been proposed in New-York for the small amount of money which it will cost. We understand that owners of property on Chatham-st, are not all in favor of the measure, or at least that some of them hesitate to sign a petition in favor of it until they have more time to consider and investigate. That is all right, Examine thoroughly. The street is now low, crooked, cold, wet and forbidding. The elteration will make it high, dry, straight and inviting Like Broadway, it will be drained on both sides. Le We have received from the publishers of The Albien weekly newspaper, the annual engraving precented to the subscribers to that journal. It is a magnificent full length portrait of Mary Queen of Scots, engraved by Ritchie from a painting in the possession of W. Young, Esq., editor of The Albion. The beautiful Queen is represented in the bloom of youth, with an expression of innocence and simplicity which speaks well for the goodness of her nature. A more admirable specimen of engraving is rarely seen in this country.

THE TYPOGRAPHICAL FESTIVAL. - The usual arrangements are in progress by the Typograpical Society for the commemoration of the Birthday of Benjamin Franklin, on the 17th inst. The complete programme will soon be issued. The Supper will be the chief feature. George Bruce, Esq., will preside, assisted by a large number of Vice-Presidents chosen from the Editors, Printers, Publishers, Type Founders, &c., of the City. Dodworth's Band is engaged and after the supper and the speeches will come the ball for those who indulge in pigeon wings.

ALMOST A MURDER-Result of Jealousy .-Last evening, not far from 8 o'clock, quite a bloody tragedy occurred in the boarding-house of Mr. Vought, No. 38 Beach st., in which one man was severely stabbed in the head, back and breast, and came nes losing his life. It appears that Rutherford Hill, a young man living at No. 108 Leonard et , called at the bouse of Mr. Vought to see a lady living in Boston, but who is now in the City on a visit. A. B. Bulger, an acquaintance of the lady in question, also boarded with Mr. V., became jealous of Hill, owing to his attentions to his female friend, and allowing his feelings to overcome his better judgment, drew a large dirk knife and stabbed his rival, with an evident attempt to take his life, in which he would have probably succeeded but for the timely interference of Mr. Vought, who seized his arm and prevented a blow simed at the breast of Hill. Information was immediately sent to the Fifth Ward Station House, when Assistant Capt. Hutchings dispatched Officer Bigley to the place, who arrested Bulger, and took him to the Station House, where he was locked up in a cell

The injured man was attended by Dr. Brown, dressed his wounds and caused him to be removed to his boarding house. His injuries are thought not to be fatal. He is a clerk in the dry goods store of A. T. Stuart & Co., where he has been employed for many months. The lady said to be at the bottom of this quarrel, which came near resulting so fatally, is the wife of an author of considerable notoriety living in Boston. Previous to a difficulty occurring between Hill and Bulger in Boston last summer they were most intimate friends, having been reared in the same town n British America. Bulger will this morning be sent before Justice Osborne at the Tombs to await an ex

SUICIDE.-Coroner Hilton, yesterday, held an inquest at Bellevue Hospital upon the body of Mat-thew Langdon, late a resident of this City, 3s years of age, whose death was caused by a wound in the throat inflicted by himself, together with exhaustion, arising from mental excitement produced by a constant attendance for the past ten months upon persons pretending to have communication with the spirits of the departed, and from reading publications professing to be revelations from the dead. The following is a copy of the

the Jury, who rendered the following verdict :

That Matthew Langdon came to his death by exhaustion consequent upon mental excitement and from a wound inflicted by himself upon his throat. We also find that this state of mind was superinduced by his connection with persons calling themselves spiritual media. We also recommend the Grand Jury to take measures for the suppression of circle meetings at the houses named in the testimony. TEMPERANCE MOVEMENTS .- The Temperance TEMPERANCE MOVEMENTS.—The Temperance people in New-Jersey have been making energiate efforts throughout the State to advance the cause by circulating petitions for signatures, to be presented to the Legislature at its rext season, peopling the enactment of a prohibitory law. One petition is for legal voters the other for ladies and youths. The number of signatures obtained to these potitions is not far from 50,000 men, women and children. The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance, together with a State Convention of representatives from subordinate divisions and friends of the cause generally, will meet at Tronton on the 27th inst., the day on which the petitions will proleoly be presented. In the meantime meetings and other demonstrations will characterize the operations of the Order, and everything done, which possibility will permit, to influence the Legislature to grant the prayer of the petitioners.

KOBBERY.—In the early part of the week a party lost a trank at the Courdandtest. Ferry, and issued band-bills, giving descriptions of the same. One of them reached the Recorder's Office in Jersey City, and induced him to attempt to detect the thief—which he successed in daing—and placed the prisoner in the custody of a New-York officer on Thursday afternoon. The person who last the trunk had offered a reward of $20 for the detection of the thief, which he refused to pay in full—offering the officers who arrested the thief the sum of $2. COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Special Term—Before Judge Woodruff.

ORCISION.

George A Scherpf agt. Edward L Szadeckaky.

This was an action to recover damages for enticing away plaintiff's wife, and detaining and harboring her, in which the Jury gave a verdict for plaintiff of $10,000.

her, in which the Jury gave a verdict for plaintiff of $10.00.

The case, it will be recollected, was tried some months that the plaintiff and defendant bad been partners; plaintiff went to Europe on beaines—plaintiff boarding in his house, we believe, at the time, as he had done previously. When plaintiff ceme back he found his wife engaged kecoting a boarding house in Brooklyn, defendant boarding with hir, and, it was said, made the agreement for the house. Plaintiff swife declined again to live with him, and this action subsequently was brought.]

Motion is made by defendant's counsel, on exceptions taken, for new trial, on taree grounds—lat. That in an action of the kind the plaintiff must prove an actual marriage. 2d. That the Judge erred in excluding the alleged wire when offered by defendant as a wimeas, to prove that sie was not, in fact, the wife of plaintiff. 3d. That the damages were excessive.

The Judge, on deciding the motion, gave an opinion at considerable length as to the first objection; it is admitted be said, that the general rule in this State as to marriage, is she was not, in fact, the wrife of plantiff. So. That the datasigns were excessive.

The Judge, on deciding the motion, gave an opinion at considerable length as to the first objection; it is admitted he said, that the general rule in this state as to marriage, is that evide nee of cohabitation, repuration, extraowledgment by the parties, a holding of themselvesout to the world as length and the general rule in this state as to marriage, is that evide nee of cohabitation, repuration, extraowledgment by the parties, a building of themselvesout to the world as length and the state of the state of the fact of marriage. "It is answered that this rule is subject to exceptions, viz: that on an indictment for bigmay the alleged first marriage must be established by proof of actual marriage, and so upon actions for crim. con. The Supreme Court, in Clayton agt. Wardell, 5 Barb. Supreme Court, Rep. 214, held that upon an issue as to the legitimacy of a child, nothing less than evidence of a prior actual marriage of the school. It is proper, the Judge, considered, in a criminal proceeding that the highest evidence should be required, hut in a claim for pecuniary damage, &c., the rule is different. "I do not decut it necessary for the purposes of this case to question the correctness of the Supreme Court.
It is said, in reply, that the case imputes crime, the Court does not so view it; the ground of the exception must be that the action itself is penal.

The first reported case in which exceptions as to crimcon are recorded, so far as the Court has been alle to deternine, was Morris against Miller, 4 Burr, 2,657, and the case has been ever since followed. In Birt against Barlow, Douglass, 171, Lord Mannfield considered that crim con asa mixture of penal procecution, and is the only civil case where it is necessary to prove an actual marriage,
"I might," Judge My, remarked, "auggest reasons of pablic policy—reasons founded on the great monventence and offentimes the impessability of furnishing proof of actua ledged wife from her allegiance, and by such exhausting deliver him from his liability to make the husbani just compensation.

As to the scord point, the Court considered it not well taken under the rule that a wife cannot be called to instify in a case where the husband is interested. If pisintiff does not show a marriage, by acknowledgement or otherwise, bits case fails. If the Court admitted the alleged wife to his case fails. If the Court admitted the alleged wife to consider them to be man and wife, and the case should be consider them to be man and wife, and the case should be consider them to be man and wife, and the case should be removed them to be man and wife, and the case should be consider them to be man and wife, and the winess depends upon the very fact in issue, the wilmess is never competent. Feat's case, in Lewis's Cr. cases 233, and Waisfield's case, ib 278, are said to sanction an examination of a wife on her our dire to prove the validity of the marriage. I am not sable to prove the validity of the marriage. I am not the question of marriage is the very question for the Jury.

The ruling on the trial was correct in this respect.

On the third point as to the amount of damages being excessive, the Judge considered that in view of the atmation of the parties it was a very heavy verdict. Hedd not think, on the trial, that such a verdict ought to be given, but his on the trial, that such a verdict ought to be given, but his on the trial, that such a verdict ought to be given, but his on the trial, that such a verdict ought to be given, but his on the trial, that such a verdict ought to be given, but his on the trial, that is and a verdict for either party would have been an animal evidence, nor is this claimed by defendant's coun sell.

"Assuming, then," the Judge remarked, "that the despains evidence, nor is this claimed by derengant scoon sel.

"Assuming, then," the Judge remarked, "that the defendant is guisty, the case shows enough of aggravation in the malice exhibited by the defendant, and enough of suffering on the part of the plaintiff, to render it improper for the ing on the part of the plaintiff, to render it improper for the deed it is so difficult to estimate in dollars the just compendation to a plaintiff for the loss of a wife with whom he had sixed for many years in the enjoyment of all the peace, occurrent and happiness of an harmonious union, that I can hardly suppose a case in which a verdict should be disturbed on the ground that such compensation has been over-estimated.
